

I travel from the Central Valley area of California to Chico for school and I love the fact that I can listen to K-Love at home as well as all the way up to Chico in my car. Our local community would not be able to listen to K-Love if it were to be displaced by LPFM and that would be a great disservice to this community as well as those travelling through this area on HWY 99 (which thousands of people do every day)!